Craft Packs

Cincinnati's Ronald McDonald House aims to bring fun to the lives of all 78 families living in our House in a variety of ways. Craft packs are a way of reaching our patient children who are either inpatient at the hospital or in isolation in their room at our House. Kids of all ages, including parents and grandparents, love putting together crafts and feeling proud of what they made. We appreciate your help in bringing fun to their lives in this unique way!

How it Works

When preparing a craft pack, please make sure each bag has everything a child would need to complete the craft. Children may not have access to additional supplies if they are in the hospital or unable to leave their room. The following guidelines will help you plan a successful experience:

- Please label each pack with the contents included and the directions, if needed.
- Indicate the targeted age range.
- Only include non-toxic, washable materials.
- Moist hand wipes for messier crafts are much appreciated.
